

A Single Market for Innovation

A Science|Business Innovation Board lunch

Time: 1230 to 1345

Location: Royal Flemish Academy of Belgium for Science and the Arts, Brussels
Academy Palace - Hertogsstraat/rue Ducale 1 - 1000 Brussels

1230: Welcome and member statements. Chair: Richard Hudson, President, Science|Business Innovation Board

1245: How can we create a truly single market for innovation – in patents, investment, research, and technology? What are the key obstacles remaining?

- Jonathan Faull, Director-General, Internal Market and Services, European Commission
- Margot Fröhlinger, Principal Director for Patent Law and Multilateral Affairs, European Patent Office
- Marion Dewar, Member of Cabinet, Commissioner Geoghegan-Quinn

1320: Research prospective – Innovation Board studies completed, underway, and to be added that could assist the completion of the Single Market

Open discussion

1345: Ends

A Single Market for Innovation 17 September 2013, 12:30 – 13:45, Brussels

List of Participants

Paolo Andolfi, Business Excellence Champion for the Innovation Process, SKF

Maria da Graça Carvalho, Member, European Parliament

Marion Dewar, Member of Cabinet, Commissioner Geoghegan-Quinn, European Commission

Gail Edmondson, Editorial Director, Science|Business

Jonathan Faull, Director General, Internal Market and Services, European Commission

Margot Fröhlinger, Principal Director for Patent Law and Multilateral Affairs, European Patent Office

Anne Glover, Chief Scientific Adviser to the President, European Commission

Simon Hepworth, Director of Corporate Partnerships, Imperial College London

Richard L. Hudson, President, Science|Business Innovation Board

Mark Lange, Director EU Institutional Relations, Microsoft

Bill Magill, Director Science Entrepreneurship, INSEAD

Steven Maisel, Secretary, Science|Business Innovation Board

Patrick Terroir, Deputy Director General, CDC Intellectual Property

Colette Vogege, Director of IP Policy, Microsoft EMEA

Jonathan Wareham, Vice Dean & Professor, ESADE Business School